Post-War Reconciliation Programs

Misuse of Religion as an Anesthetic

SETTING UP TIN-GODS TO "WORSHIP"

By C. Leon de Aryan

I had to take a trip to Los Angeles to make sure that Satan's synagogue does not take over control of a prominent, long established, California esoteric school. During my stay in the northern city, I walked into the office of one of my readers for a short chat and exchange of news.

"Glad to see you, de Aryan," said my friend, "I believe I have something that will interest you very much. In fact, I hope you will be able to shed some light on it. It has all the elements of mystery and romance, and that is rather more in your line than mine."

I took the proferred chair and sitting down, smiled with anticipation. "What happened, Frank? Some sweet woman is after you, too?"

"How did you guess? That's exactly what happened. A few days ago a young woman walked into the waiting room of my office and sat down with the other people. She was observed looking at my picture, which hangs with the others on the walls of the room, and was studying it with unusual attention. Then she sent word with the attendant that she had some especially urgent business that brooded no delay and that I should give her an audience immediately, regardless of the waiting line. She impressed my attendant who relayed the request to me, and I had her come in. She said her name was Joy — — — , her eyes were as sharp as steel."

IN QUEST OF A WORSHIPFUL MASTER

JOY—I represent an organization of 35,000 people who are interested in post-war reconciliation. The local group has instructed me to call on you and inform you of our program with a view of soliciting your collaboration. We have investigated you fully and we need you. The woman who sponsors the local group has invested $1,500,000 with us and has requested in return that we offer you the place of the ONE who is to be — — — .

FRANK—Well, go ahead, say it.

JOY—I hesitate to say it, because it is so unusual and so strange.

FRANK—Don't worry about that. Now that you are taking up my time and that of the people who were supposed to be here instead of waiting for you to talk to me, this is unusual enough, so go ahead, you cannot shock me. You are offering me the place of the ONE who is to be — — what?

JOY—To be worshipped.

FRANK—That is ridiculous, I am full of devilries.

JOY—You are the one we want, our sponsor wants you, you have the mind we need to succeed in our local group. You will be able to attract enough converts because you can be trusted.

FRANK—Young woman, you are wasting your time with me. I am not good enough to be worshipped by anybody. What sort of Christian Science literature have you got in your handbag?

JOY—How did you know what I had in here? I had not opened it.

FRANK—Hand it over, I am sure it's Monitor propaganda.

JOY—That proves you are our right man. You can read my mind. Yes, it is Monitor literature. We are engaged in post-war reconciliation work. There will be much re-adjustment work to be done when the actual fighting stops.

FRANK—So you want to use my mind and my prestige to bolster up the Monitor program, you are wasting your time, young woman. I am sorry, but you have to leave. The name you gave me it not your true name, you made it up by some sort of numerology and I don't want to have anything to do with you and your group or your Monitor program of using religion to cover up the misdeeds of imperialism, and reconcile people to it, as if it were inspired by God.

JOY—But I did not tell you any of that, how do you know it all? It proves you are the man we need in our work. I am going now but I am coming back. I hope you think over our proposition. Our sponsor wants you very badly and we must have your collaboration.

IDENTIC PROGRAM OF MARION FAY

I listened to his story. "Did she come back?"

"Yes, she returned several times and my attendant let her in. She has quite a magic influence."

"They all have it. The schooling they get in 'Christian Science' develops their mesmeric propensities and trains their mind to work in one groove all the time. The will is directed to persist in exerting itself till they get results and that makes them temporarily 'successful' because they never figure on the 'backwash' and the price they pay and have to pay, for misusing mind power to effect results contrary to principle."

"I see, you are on to them, de Aryan. That's why I figured she was peddling Monitor literature."

"But Frank, Marion Fay practically gave me the same line. She wanted me because I had a 'highly developed mind'. She told me she was instructed to win me over 'to collaborate with their post-war reconciliation program'. She was peddling Monitor literature. She claimed that 'the Allies were waging a holy war and that God inspired Roosevelt how to proceed'. And she set herself up as 'the QUEEN to be worshipped' by her San Diego group, as you were to be the ONE to be worshipped by the L. A. Group. It's the same gang that is behind all these various post-war reconciliation programs to sanctify the rape of war. Why don't you play up to her the way I did to Fay and get the lowdown on your emissary?"

"No, de Aryan, I cannot do it. It was in your line to play the doddering fool who falls for a sweet queen, till she showed her hand to you, but I could not do it. First, I am a married man. Second, my other activities would suffer and I cannot afford the time. You could do it, and by reading THE BROOM I figured out the similarity of Joy's proposition and called their hand by asking her to pull out the Monitor literature. There it was. This is your line of work, not mine. I am telling you this in hopes you would find out who the 'group' is that Joy represents."

"Did she not leave her address?"

"No, she merely gave her phony name, and that's all."

"A CALL TO PRAYER"

The very same evening I had been invited to supper to the house of some friends. We discussed many things and I brought up the matter of Joy and Frank.

The lady of the house, after listening, said: "I knew all the time that you did not make yourself a fool over Marion and that there was purpose in your madness. Now I'll show you something", and she produced a number of letters signed by FOSTER BAILEY and ALICE A. BAILEY. "That's exactly along the same line of religious war propaganda", said my hostess. "The Baileys are asking everybody to pray: 'Do not, at this time, lay emphasis upon peace. Lay it on the victory of our forces and the defeat of the enemy. Peace will then inevitably come but there will be no peace without a complete victory of the Forces of Light. Our Allied Commanders—Eisenhower, Montgomery, and MacArthur are religious men'."

Somebody in our company remarked: "But Jesus has forbidden us to ask for specific things, saying that the Father knows best. He takes care even of the sparrows and has counted every hair on our heads, in Matthew 10:30. He enjoins us to love our enemies and not draw the sword, then how could we pray for victory?"

And the talk turned to the very essence of Holy Week, for it was Holy Week. How Jesus was led upon a mountain top from which he was able to survey the wealth of Palestine and was tempted by Satan to forsake God and worship him instead, that Jesus may have power over all the kingdoms of this world, but Jesus replied, Luke 4:8:

"It is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve".

This attitude He confirmed when He announced at His trial that His kingdom was not of this world. Thus He refused to be indentified with violence, murder and war. And that is why He was crucified. His attitude of not falling in with the plans of the Jewish authorities who wanted to free Jerusalem from Roman rule, was considered treacherous by the Zionists of His day and they cooked up the charge of "sedition" against Him, for being a Pacifist.

The "Call to Prayer" issued by the Baileys from 11 West 42nd St., N. Y., is a perfect example of the Communist claim: "Religion is the People's Opiate". It presents the "Invasion of Europe" as an assault by the "Forces of Light" upon the "Forces of Darkness". This is plagiarized from the Mazda-yasnian doctrine of the Battle of the Children of Mazda against the Demons of Ahriman or Angro Mainyus. Very good war propaganda. First class war propaganda!

As long as people want to war on one another and consider it their duty, such is their devotion to patriotism and war. But never drag God into it and the "Forces of Light", for that is playing with holy fires and the backwash is more terrible than the very war and slaughter itself. It destroys the ability to perceive the truth. It destroys the sense of intellectual, spiritual and moral integrity. It kills the soul!

Never mix God up with human passions of murder, hatred and violence. God does not want even the death of a sinner. To God the Allies and the Axis are equally violators of HIS COMMANDMENTS. The invasion of Europe is not the Battle between the Forces of Light against the Forces of Darkness.

Spiritual Light does not violate God's Law when it shines. It's very presence dispels darkness. Jesus demonstrated this truth in making the sacrifice of risking His life on the cross, rather than resort to violence. He spoke so plainly that even the dumbest may see and understand. When He stated His case of non-violence and the need of showing by example how to rather sacrifice our lives than resort to armed force, and foretold how He would be arrested and crucified, Peter protested. And Jesus rebuked him with the memorable words:

"Get thee behind me, Satan: thou are a stumbling-block unto me: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men."

Thereafter He enjoined his disciples to give up their lives and take up their cross, if they wished to follow Him. Read the end of the chapter from Matthew 16:23 on, to realize how strongly Jesus condemns the misuse of divine ideals for satanic purposes. Those who uphold war must do so at their own peril. Let them beware of dragging the HOLY NAME into it and "minding the things of men" by claiming that they represent the "Forces of Light".

In times of stress Christians are prone to be afraid to stand with Jesus; they rather follow Peter's example of denying HIM. Thus when a brazen person comes out publicly, in the name of that which is HOLY, and mixes it up with war and "victory", timid souls desert the Christ.

THE BROOM is not among the betrayers of the Lord. "For whosoever would save his life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake shall find it."

This leaves no doubt in any Christian's mind what is expected of us and we are certain that Jesus' promises are not "campaign oratory", nor promises of a corrupt politician lusting for power by giving assurances again and again and again, and never keeping an oath of office. Jesus keeps HIS promises, for He speaks with the authority of the man who rebuked Peter, for suggesting that He evade the crucifixion, by calling him Satan and a stumbling-block. And that is what the Church has always been when it prostituted itself to serve the things of men in place of the things of God.

ANESTHETIC

At a time when mothers and fathers, sisters and wives will mourn the loss of their dear ones, to avert hard feelings against those who direct the "Invasion of Europe", the Baileys have prepared "A Call to Prayer", as follows in this excerpt:

Dear Fellow-Student.

The "Invasion of Europe" may begin any day now. . . . . I appeal to every Student in the Arcane School to . . . . stand behind our soldiers and to strenghten the hands of the Allied Commanders. The moment the invasion starts let us PRAY— . . . until the prayer, voiced by General Montgomery, "Let God arise; let HIS enemies be scattered", be answered with full victory. . . . . County G. O. P. Central Committee Oversteps Its Office

James B. Abbey, former district attorney, today held the San Diego county Republican central committee's indorsement for the Republican nomination to congress from the 23rd district, while Mrs. Jeanette E. Daley stood indorsed by the executive boards of the County Republican Women's Federation and its La Jolla division, and by the Veterans Nonpartisan committee.

Abbey was indorsed by the Men's Republican league two weeks ago. There are five registered Republicans in the congressional contest, while the one registered Democrat, incumbent Ed V. Izac, has cross-filed in the Republican race.

Resolution Stresses Unity

In a resolution the central committee stated they deemed it "advisable for Republicon voters to unite in support of one candidate who is a true Republican."

* * *

The Central Committee overstepped its office when it made the endorsement. The functions of the central committe is to execute the mandate of the voters who nominate the candidate in the primary election, not to tell the voters for whom to vote. The Central Committee is just as bad as the Newdeal. The excuse for breaking the rule is given that too many candidates are running who were not Republicans 4 years ago but who recently registered as Republicans. They claim that Abbey is the only bona-fide Republican. This is too far fetched an excuse for aping the lawless practices of the Newdeal. Another "emergency", evidently!

One could come back and ask whether to be a Republican one must have the endorsement of the gamblers in San Diego county, as Abbey has. Abbey lost his race for mayor of San Diego because he was identified with gambling interests and again the gamblers are on his side.

The Central Committee should have more brains than making a premature choice, & breaking the law of its own office. Of course, they, too, gambled that we are dumb and stupid and will let them get away with it. It backfires now!

FIRST LADY'S AIR TRAVEL CHALLENGED

KANSAS CITY— Claude A. Watson, Prohibition party candidate for President, questioned the right of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt to travel in Army bombers upon losing his airplane reservation because of military priorities.

"So long as Mrs. Roosevelt can fly in Army bombers from Timbuctoo to the tropics, I'm curious. If she does it to gain votes for her husband, I ask: when was she nominated by a political party and what right has she to fly in Army bombers?" he said in an interview.

Watson was en route to Los Angeles when his reservation was canceled.

FRED de ARYAN, Owner

C. LEON de ARYAN, Editor

Declared a legal newspaper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, in California, by Superior Court Order, January 15, 1932.

Entered as second class matter March 27, 1931, at the postoffice of San Diego, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

A Republican newspaper, standing for a clean sweep of the Augean stables. Fearless fighter for a truthful, just, vigilant and tolerant nationalism. Lover of the Constitution and the Founding Fathers. Defender of free speech and free press, as the foundation stones of the republican form of government. Opponent of injustice, tyranny and oppression, and of all "isms" except Americanism.

FEDERAL CITY

Supreme Court 8 to 1

OKLAHOMA — NO INDICATOR

WINCHELL'S SLANDERS

WILLKIE — SOCIALIST

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON— By a vote of 8 to 1 our Socialistic Supreme Court has voted to Africanize the politics of the Southern States. Mark the figures:

Every one of the EIGHT who voted AGAINST Southern white civilization was a "Newdealer". They were appointed to their present positions by Mr. Roosevelt.

Only one man, Justice Roberts the dissenter, was appointed by Hoover as a Republican. Of course, the other Republican, Justice Stone, was already on the court, but FDR elevated him to Chief Justice.

Justice Roberts alone voted to sustain that part of the Constitution which guarantees "to every State in this Union a Republican form of government". He pointed out that for these Judicial "Dealers" to continue their policy of reversing previous supreme court decisions will cause legal anarchy in our Federal system.

The Republican Supreme court in 1935 had sustained the right of a private political organization to prescribe the terms of admission to its ranks, and to make a Texas white primary if it wished.

The Newdeal judges are now running true to form, although for awhile it appeared that they were going to be conservatively American at times.

The Southern Negroes, as a "race" and from an evolutionary standpoint, are possibly 25,000 years behind the Aryan white man. Nevertheless the black race has in its ranks SOME able members who are near the top in evolution. Races must be judged by their AVERAGE, not the occasional genius.

Intelligence tests of draftees in World War I showed the American Negro with an average quotient of a little over TEN YEARS in mental age, the very bottom. Slightly above them were those of Italian and Russian birth. Native-born white Americans were slightly over 13 years; English-born over 14.

The War department sent the millions of intelligence test papers to Princeton University, where a two years' study produced a book in 1922, "A Study of American Intelligence", by Carl C. Brigham, a Canadian scientist and statistician. It is an amazing book, of great interest to scientists of anthropology and ethnology. (Figures quoted are on page 124).

Despite the undeniable progress which the force and example of the white man has imposed upon the American Negro, he remains our one (possibly) "UNSOLVABLE PROBLEM".

He contributes far more than his share of crime and delinquency. In Washington City, where he represents between one-third and one-half of the population, he gorges our courts with about four or five colored criminals to each white. (Ask the Clerk of the U. S. Court).

The black populations of Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi are a real problem. For the Supreme Court to demand that the blacks be allowed to run the State and local governments will cause such resentment as the South has not experienced in nearly ninety years.

We should never forget that our Civil War (caused in part by a Supreme Court decision over the Negro) resulted in the deaths of more good American white men than there were Negro men of similar ages in America, and the destruction in four years of more property than three hundred years of slavery had been able to build up!

If is high time for Southerners to break the fetters of New Deal Socialist slavery and join their white Republican brothers in sustaining the American form of government.

Incidentally, Justice Newdealer Stanley Reed in writing the majority decision ruled, for the first time in our history, that the U. S. is a "constitutional democracy".

This IS news; since no previous American Constitution, Bill of Rights, Articles of Confederation, Declaration of Independence, statute, ordinance, or Message to Congress EVER before referred to the U. S. as a "democracy" but always as a "REPUBLIC" — up until F. Delano Roosevelt.

* * *

WHO SAID OKLAHOMA was a "political barometer" — especially the Indian district which recently elected the part Indian Newdealer Stigler over Clark, the part-Indian Republican?

This is the most Indian district of Indian districts. Its first representative was a full-blooded Indian, serving for many terms. The Democratic representative who was almost defeated in 1942 was part Indian. The objection to him was personal and political, but not national. The district is normally overwhelmingly Democratic. Besides the Indian population the white are mostly of Southern extraction, from Arkansas, Tennessee, North and South Carolina, Alabama and Missouri; some Kansans.

The district has no Republican daily papers and no weeklies to speak of. Senator Moore did not carry it in 1942, and it is a tribute to the G. O. P. swing that as many voted Republican as did, especially considering the blizzard that kept many Anti-Newdeal farmers from the polls.

* * *

WALTER, THE RUSSIAN, more than met his match in the radio duel on the night of March 26 with Congressman Martin Dies. It was a memorable occasion. Washington Post published both speeches. Jergens said they would allow Walter one reply, which he made on April 2nd. Then—"quits".

Walter had some magnificent words to say in behalf of freedom of speech. It had in it some elements of the classic,—did not sound like Walter at all. Some wondered if he did not have help in this. Only one error; he placed the Constitutional Convention in 1789; it was really 1787.

Walter, however, for a big "hoofer" and lacking formal education, done right well; but someone should enlighten him on one other American "right" he seems never to have learned about—

"The right to protection against assaults upon one's person, one's property and ONE'S REPUTATION."

Most States have this in their Constitution; and if not there, then in their common law.

It is one of the most fundamental and sacred of all American rights.

It was not put in the Federal Constitution because it existed in the laws of all States and really concerned State rights.

Most persons, like Walter, of immediate foreign extraction, do not know this profound truth, and do not understand the distinction between national and State rights.

Our founding fathers in the Philadelphia Convention remarked and agreed that the independence and greatness of the individual States were the crowning feature of our Federal system.

Walter, as we have said, apparently does not understand that speech is free, only in the sense that no prior license is required. But NO ONE in America has a right to villify, libel or slander another. Libel is a criminal offense in EVERY American State, and many persons do not know it.

The criminal libel laws need to be used far more frequently than they are. A term of a few months in prison might do Walter a lot of good. He makes his living out of libel and slander, when really he could probably make even a better living by showing some love and kindness and forgiveness in his writings and radio ravings.

* * *

WENDELL WILLKIE, the Trojan Horse and "Bad News" of 1940, will and should go down in history as the perfect example of the EVIL OF THE NATIONAL POLITICAL CONVENTION SYSTEM!

Our forefathers knew, spoke of and warned against the danger of selecting officials in the "mass convention" manner. They never dreamed that such a system as we now have would come into vogue; but they did dream of and warned against men of the Roosevelt and especially of the Willkie type.

Willkie is a German by blood and a lifelong "one-world international socialist" in principle.

In no public speech, so far as we have read, has he ever shown the slightest understanding of the American system.

He has been running around over the country spouting "totalitarian" dictatorship ideas, and has never spoken a good word for the old party which he assaulted and came near ruining in 1940. During the campaign of 1942 he was so ungrateful that he never spoke once in behalf of a single G. O. P. congressman or candidate.

In Wisconsin he is quoted as saying: "I don't want a delegate from Wisconsin unless you believe in the things I stand for". See?—he doesn't put himself down as a would-be follower of Republican principles, with the desire to be the party's servant and mouthpiece, but he offers to cram HIS personal socialist ideas down the throat of the G. O. P.!

Look at this amazing statement: "The American people don't want their L E A D E R selected by any such method this year". Under the noble American system, the people NEVER select a LEADER, but always a SERVANT.

They have a LEADER in Germany, where the word means "FUEHRER", and in Italy, where it means "DUCE". Only such Americans as Willkie and Mrs. Roosevelt and her children refer to the President as our "leader".

The National Committee should expel him from the Republican party, and let him go back to the New Deal where he belongs!

City Attorney Demurs in Parking Meter Suit

J. F. DuPaul, City Attorney of San Diego, and Bertrand L. Comparet, Deputy City Attorney, appeared in the suit of de Aryan vs. City of San Diego with a demurrer on the grounds "that the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue upon the cause of action alleged in said complaint". They also claim "that said complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action ", also that it is "uncertain" because from the complaint "it cannot be determined whether any money placed in the parking meter fund is in fact being spent for purposes not specified in said ordinance, or not", nor "why all parking meters now installed and in use in and along the streets in the City of San Diego, should be removed in the event that any money in the parking meter fund has been or will be expended for any purpose not provided for in the ordinances mentioned in said complaint".

The hearing on the demurrer has been set for April 17, 1944, at 10 AM, and will most likely be heard in Judge Haines' Court, Dept. No. 2.

CLINTON ROOSEVELT IN 1841

The Indispensible man told us nearly twelve years ago something to the effect that if the emergency continued there would never be ANOTHER president elected in the United States. There has been no lack of emergencies assuredly, and nothing as yet indicates likelihood, tho OPA finds new shortages daily. And, moreover, there has "never been another President elected."

FDR's demand for total conscription was not, however born of any war emergency, else it would not have first appeared twelve years ago, in that first Nudealism Congress, in the former guise of the Mc Swain draft act, to conscript 42 million into army and labor battalions, at one of the few times in history that the entire world was at peace. There was, and is, nothing spasmodic or improvised in that effort. It was offered as a carefully studied and prepared plan, hence any and all should disabuse their minds of any idea that it is offered merely to win the war. Away back in 1841 Clinton Roosevelt attempted to persuade our people to chuck our Constitution overboard and establish dictatorship, regiment labor and agriculture. Possible this ideal had taken form quite some time prior to that.

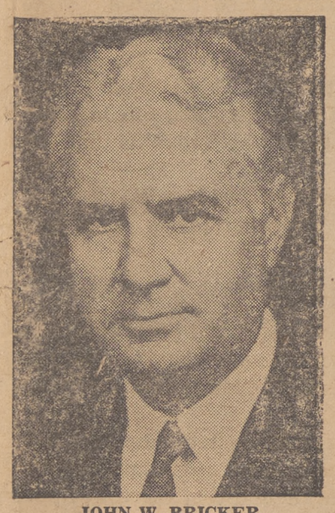
GOV. BRICKER COMING TO CALIFORNIA SOON



JOHN W. BRICKER

Many Republicans from this vicinity are planning to greet Gov. John W. Bricker, candidate for the Republican nomination for President, when he comes into California late next week for the first time during his campaign. The three-term Buckeye Governor will address the Commonwealth Club at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco Saturday, April 15; a public meeting in the Shrine auditorium at Los Angeles Monday evening, April 17, and the Town Hall meeting at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles the following day. A heavy schedule of conferences with Republican leaders in both cities also has been set up.

Governor Bricker, who will be accompanied by Mrs. Bricker, will speak five times in Washington and Oregon before coming to California.

THE LADY ELEANOR

(With apologies to Poe's "Raven")

From the White House of the Nation,
Speaking without hesitation,
Comes the voice of unchecked knowledge
From Lady Eleanor.

In the limelight basking gaily
Speaks the Lady, nightly, daily,
Like the brook that gushes onward,
Even onward — ever more !

Speaks the expert on Great Problems!
Home and Children — Love and War —
Race and Liquor, Sex and more;
Speaks the Lady Eleanor!

And this expert ever flitting,
Never sitting, never quitting,
Never tending her own knitting,
Doles her pills of fancied knowledge,
Wisdom from her bursting store.

For despite her global milling,
Of the voice there is no stilling,
With its platitudes galore,
As it gushes on, advising,
Criticising and Chastising,
Moralizing, patronizing,
Paralyzing — ever more,
Advertising Eleanor!

HAVE THEIR OWN IDEAS ON WAYS OF LIFE

Speaking recently to some American newspaper correspondents, one of the pashas in French Morocco, North Africa, took occasion to say something that should give a good many meddlers here at home food for serious thought. He remarked:

"Your American policy today stirs up everything and settles nothing. At the bottom of your attitude is the assumption that all the world wishes to be American. This assumption is false. Strange as it may seem to your far-off American policy makers, the fact is that the Moslem people do not want the wondrous American world or the incredible American way of life."

Was Jesus a Vegetarian ?

Dear Friend:

Please find $5.00 inclosed for your work. I comprehend what you mean & feel about eating meat. Does that also include fish & chicken? Have heard it said that Jesus The Christ ate meat, is that right? With the best of luck. I am Yours truly — — — OREGON.

* * *

Dear Friend:

Thanks for the $5, these are coming in very handy just now. Am doing a number of things for which I am not being paid, while it entails much labor and expense, and needs to be done.

Jesus was born a vegetarian and lived strictly on a meatless diet all his life. There is nowhere a record to the contrary. The Gospels, as you read them, refer to "fish" only. There is quite a controversy about this word, whether it meant the species FISH or the popular slang used for honey cake. The same ignorance of contemporary usage of the language had arisen in the case of Gotamo, the Buddha, who had been erroneously reported to have died from indigestion after eating WILD BOAR. That was as much as to say that after leading a strictly vegetarian life, as all Buddhists do, at the last moment he became senile and contradicted his life long discipline. Same as saying that Jesus after denying the need of drawing the sword in self-defense, or the defense of the realm, at the last moment fought the guards that came to arrest him. Such things are out of character. Two years ago it was finally discovered by linguists that the same word that meant "wild boar" also meant "wild truffles" and that Gotamo ate truffles that gave him indigestion from which he died.

We, who have been raised in the esoteric schools frequented by Jesus and Gotamo, appreciate the confusion that arises from the misuse of terms in existing records. Jesus was put to death by the Jewish Kosher butcher's union for opposing KASHRUT, as the handful of Jews in Houston,, Texas, are being denounced all over the world by Jewry, for doing the same thing. The SCHECHTER union, which is a rabbinical, Talmudist organization of die hard orthodoxy, had its agents, walking delegates, among the mob before Pilate and incited the people to holler the name of Jesus, of Bar-Abbas, louder than the name of Jesus, of Nazareth, when the two of them were placed by Pilate before the people to vote on. You see, the people imagined they voted to free the Christ, but during the festival so many strangers were in town who did not know the names of each. Just by looking at the Christ, naturally, they knew whom they wanted to free, because people are good-hearted, but the walking delegates confused them by claiming that the Savior was of Bar-Abbas, when asked while mingling with the crowd. Just another "smart" trick of the tribe.

The tribe controlled the "press" then, as it controls it today. It destroyed every vestige whenever the records came to their hands, so that no clear understanding is transmitted to posterity, except by tradition, that Jesus had a big fight with the Kosher butcher's union right on the eve of the Pascal Feast and to commemorate his denunciation of the cruel ritual by which the Kosherites slit the throats of animals and let them bleed to death in full consciousness, he ordered his followers never to partake of lamb, but in HIS MEMORY use bread and grapes for their communal meals. And he explained that bread and grapes contain every necessary ingredient to produce strong bodies AND CHARACTERS that will rather shed THEIR blood, than that of innocent creatures, if needs be. This is the meaning of the last communion. In the face of such definite stand by Jesus it would be completely out of character to assume that he was anything but a member of the Melchi-Zend-Ek school, who were strict vegetarians. The order of "Melchizedek" uses bloodless offerings only, that means they build the temple "not made by hands", the human body, out of the purest substancces to serve "Our Father".

Sincerely, yours KOSTI.

Holy Week, Easter in 1944

There is no power greater than Faith for the purpose of bringing into earth, into flesh and blood experience, into Life, here, now, in this world and day of ours, even in wartime, the profoundest and sublimest expectations of one's soul and being. This war, for us, is a period of great test.

I had not expected to live and see the results of adherence to the Christ, as against Roosevelt and his policies, bring such marvelous results so soon. Of course, my readers have been informed of my "duel" with Marion. Few grasped the full significance. But I stayed with it, and now Holy Week brought the reward.

Another reader of The Broom placed her faith in the Truth of my stand against The Monitor war-policy, and thru her faith I was called into a case that puzzled her, where my services were needed. The result was marvelous and astounding for me. How much the other parties benefitted is yet to be seen, for everything in human life is dependent on good faith and each is rewarded according to his faith. But here is what happened to me.

When I met Miss Fay, I was astonished to have found a woman who had persistently followed the line of "freedom from animal influence" to the point of pure vegetarianism minus dairy and hen-yard products. I had yearned for it while married but my partner was not interested. This yearning was a priceless treasure and Fay fell heir to it. I adored her for having walked into the path that leads to highest heaven on earth, freedom from all animal tendencies, because MAN is not an animal; but a spiritual being, a breathing master of thought divine. There is a quality to Life and Thought none can experience but the perfect, pure vegetarian whose body is not sullied by the least animal trace. Naturally, mine was sullied. And I had just come from jail besides, so I was the inferior in the flesh to Marion Fay and results so proved in the test.

This gave Marion the big-head. She was superior. The poor girl then imagined that as my superior I should follow her. Henry Ford made the same mistake. Having succeeded as a motor-magnate he imagined himself superior in everything and was going to get Peace on Earth, by sending a peace-ship, peopled by the crackpots of America, to Europe.

Thus Marion Fay ordered me to obey and worship Roosevelt and stop the Broom.

But I adhered to the Love of Truth and kept on worshipping the divine Marion in her physical purity, while battling the split-personality Marion in her sell-out of Jesus and all He stands for here on Earth, as the Prince of Peace. You have read all about it in detail.

Now our trustful friend stepped in and thru her faith in me I was called in as consultant in a case that needs infinite Patience and Consideration. And here is my reward.

To do my work well I had to go HOME, to Our Father, to receive instructions, since the situation was over my head and I was baffled and in danger of being run over and knocked down by it. And when calling HOME, there was the perfecct solution. It will take time to materialize; but it clarified everything.

The faith with which I stuck by Jesus against Roosevelt, enabled me to see and witness the power of Faith scientifically applied. Poor Roosevelt! He thinks he is a hero, a great man; he made himself an earthly monument of his folly in Hyde Park, approved by his rubberstamp Congress. He ranks with Attila and Genghis Khan. They who overran the earth with armed force, leaving death and devastation in their wake! The grinning sculls of mortal vanity!

And what I saw in Father's HOME repaid me for jail and all the abuse endured. And freed me completely from any obligation I had to Marion Fay who reached heaven with her purity from animal life, but lost it when she followed the Monitor instead of the Christ.

THE TRUTH PREVAILS

My experiences of the last 3 weeks have demonstrated to me in the most perfect way that we must not be afraid of anything. Just stand with the Truth! Everything comes to light and is unravelled in the most wonderful way.

"Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves". Matthew 10:16.

Too many people are afraid of the wolves instead of trusting in the power of the Holy Spirit. We teach that Spirit means Breath, and the holy spirit means the whole breath. Breathe with your whole lungs, all five of them and breathe fully, wholly; then walk among the wolves and fear nobody.

And this was my experience this Holy Week of Easter 1944.

You're Not in Army Till You Take Oath, High Court Rules

WASHINGTON— The Supreme Court has ruled that a man actually does not become a member of the armed forces until he takes the induction oath.

The tribunal acted unanimously in rejecting the Army's "viewpoint"—as presented by the Government—that a man becomes a soldier when he passes his final physical examination.

This case involved a plea by Arthur Goodwyn Billings, former University of Texas economics professor, for a writ of habeas corpus to release him from Army detention.

Billings, who had stated publicly he never would serve in the Army, passed a final physical examination but refused to stand when the induction oath was read to him at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., and refused to subscribe to it.

For thus refusing to obey an order of a "superior" officer, he was placed in a post guardhouse. He contended he was not subject to Army discipline because he had not taken a valid oath and thus actually was not in the Army. The Supreme Court upheld his contention, thus paving the way for his release from the guardhouse.

Loves and Hates

(John O'Donnell in the New York News)

Increasingly, the mail of Washington correspondents is laden with letters from organizations (many fresh-born) and individuals—all with the same plea of tossing the "unconditional surrender" ukase of Roosevelt out the window and calling for an armistice now and a negotiated peace. One of the most ambitious is the Peace Now movement based on the thesis that "every foreign war that the United States engaged in until World War I, ended in a negotiated peace". They've compiled this "love and hate" record of our warring America:

1755—(French and Indian war): We loved the British and hated the French.

1776—(American Revolution): We loved the French and hated the British.

1799—(Sea battles with France): We hated the French.

1812—(War of 1812): We loved the French and hated the British.

1846—(Mexican war over Texas): We loved the southerners and hated the Mexicans.

1861-1864—(Civil War; Britain aids the south): We hated the southerners and the British.

1898—(Spanish-American war): We hated the Spanish.

1900—(Boxer uprising in China): We loved the Japanese and hated the Chinese.

1904—(Russo-Japanese war): We loved the Japanese and hated the Russians.

1914—(Allies in World War I): We loved the Japanese and the Russians.

1914—(Marines land at Vera Cruz): We hated the Mexicans.

1914—(Beginning of World War I): We loved the British and French and hated the Austrians and Germans.

1915—(Italy joins allies): We loved the Italians.

1916—(Pershing invades Mexico): We hated the Mexicans.

1917—(Allies in World War I: Russian bolshevik revolution): We loved the Japanese and the Chinese but not the Russians.

1918—(Our troops invade Russia): We loved the Italians and hated the Russians.

1927—(United States bombards Nanking): We loved the Japanese and hated the Chinese.

1935—(Italy invades Ethiopia): We hated the Italians.

1936—(Communists despoil China): We loved the Chinese and hated the Russians.

1939—(Beginning of World War II): We loved the British and French and hated the Germans and Russians.

1939—(Russia invades Finland): We loved the Finns and hated the Russians.

1941—(Russia fights Germany and Finland): We loved the Russians and hated the Finns.

1941—(War with Japan): We loved the Filipinos and hated the Japanese.

1941—(World War II): We loved the British, Chinese, Dutch, Russians, and hated the Germans, Italians and Japanese.

1942—(Despite Vichy regime): We loved some French and hated others.

1942—(Allies in World War II): We loved the Mexicans and other Latin Americans.

1943—(Allies in World War II): We love the Chinese, try to love Russians and British.

1944—And afterward. Shall we continue our tragically, fatal, shifting friendship and hatreds? Or shall we abandon our futile and suicidal opportunism and begin now to cooperate constructively with the people of all countries in building a better world together?

Robert Noble Appeals for Legal Aid

Letter to Sister: Martha Govern,
2474 Montrose Ave., Montrose, Calif.
Legal letter to Sister, Re: Counsel,
200-19th St., S. E., Washington, 3, D. C.

February 19, 1944

Dear Martha:

How I wish in some magic way you and all your friends could know of all the mental pictures that have flitted, roamed, haunted and crashed through my mind this week. What I am trying to say is; I do wish you could know something of this experience. And yet I really don't mean it all—for I wouldn't want anybody to suffer so. And its all because of feeling so impotent in this crushing circumstance. It is most difficult to know which way to turn—although an avenue or two do offer some hope.

The restrictions placed around us are very great and make it almost impossible to move. And when certain demanded rights are grudingly somewhat admitted,—delay, neglect, stall after stall, all the way to outright written refusal of means to carry out such "rights" follow.

In all of this I refer only to the right to arrange for proper legal counsel and constitutional methods of defense.

I have been refused the right to write Heber Votaw; my letter to him was not mailed here in Takowa Pk and several other people, altho other letters have been sent thru, and I am still hopeful for favorable results. I thot Elder Votaw might have a suggestion that would be helpful in the matter of counsel and defense. It might be that you would care to write him in my behalf. His advice ought to be helpful at this time. Should you think it well to write him—please tell him I would very much like to see him. Permission can hardly be refused him if I want to see him and the visit will be concerned with the matter of arranging proper defense counsel. Perhaps he really can be of great help, you understand I am at the D. C. Jail. Yes, the more I think of it, it seems a fine idea for you to write him if you don't mind. This is the time a fellow needs a friend, and he really could be one in this situation. The problem I face is not at all insurmountable if a sincere straight forward person or two came forward at this time.

You of course understand that there is not the slightest thing to any idea of my having conspired with anybody against the interests of this country. I am in no sense guilty of any act in violation of any federal law charged in this indictment. The whole indictment is utterly fantastic. But you know how it was in our Los Angeles trial and here the conditions appear to be worse. However, some straighforward unafraid assistance can reverse the entire picture. I have nothing to hide—but fearfully need help to be able to present the simple and truthful facts.

Again, I do feel Cousin Heber might be willing to assist in seeing that I get something of a fair chance in the trial here.

Won't you write him, darling—remember Surgeon Gen. Blue?

I am innocent—and what a tragedy another long prison term would be—it would just about mean my life. The others are hard enough, but I've tried to reconcile myself to being in until the war is over. But should I spend all the best years of my life in prison—for trying to help my country. Write him air mail—Love and best wishes to all kind friends for all their wonderful help and understanding.

And love to you my darling sister.

Your brother, ROBERT NOBLE.

Editor's Note: The American Civil Liberties Union is collecting funds all year 'round to protect the civil rights of defendants when they are Communists, while the rights of other defendants are ignored by the Washington and New York branch of the ACLU. Noble is entitled to a fair trial and to effective defense, according to the U. S. Constitution that guarantees him due process of law, which means effective legal defense. The ACLU is not supposed to actually defend every defendant in political trials, as the one now in process in the national capital, but the ACLU IS duty bound by its own publicly proclaimed aims to insure effective defense where civil rights are involved. They know perfectly well what I mean, but are playing politics at present. The court himself is charged by law to insure effective defense to every defendant. Lack of such defense is reversible error.

We hope that Noble succeeds and insists that the records show he was deprived of effective defense by the court's own rulings. Even though the court orders him again and again to shut up and sit down, Noble has the constitutional right to enter objections and protests, and take exceptions which MUST be noted in the record. We hope the Newspapers in Washington show sufficient American spirit to report the manner of the court that deprives defendants of effective defense and due process of law. Let them be proven guilty in a fair trial but not railroaded after Nazi and Soviet fashion!

Several English words have in the past been used ironically so frequently that their original meaning has become reversed. For instance, the word "silly" at one time meant "blessed".

BIASED NEW DEAL JUDGE

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE
UNITED STATES
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

United States, Plaintiff, vs. Joseph E. McWilliams, et al, Defendants. Criminal No. 73086.

MOTION AND PETITION OF JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

I, JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS, petitioner herein, respectfully move for a change of venue from Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher and for the designation of another judge to hear this matter, and say:

(a) That I am one of the thirty defendants named in the indictment in this cause, that I reside in the City of Chicago, Illinois.

(b) That I was born in Hitchcock, Territory of Oklahoma, on March 23, 1904; that my father was James A. McWilliams and my mother was Estelle Quick McWilliams; that my mother was born in St. Louis, Missouri, and my father was born in Chairton County, Missouri; that all my grandparents were native born Americans.

(c) That I verily believe that I cannot secure a fair trial before His Honor, Judge Edward C. Eicher, because said Edward C. Eicher has a personal bias and prejudice against me and certain of the defendants impleaded with me; that the grounds for my belief are based upon the following facts:

(1) That the indictment in this cause is for conspiracy to violate Sections 9 and 11 of USC 18 and is the third indictment secured by the Department of Justice for various of said defendants; that the other two indictments are numbered 70153 and 71203 and are similar to this indictment; that indictment numbered 71053 was returned by the Washington, D. C., Grand Jury in July, 1942, and indictment numbered 71203 was returned by the Washington, D. C. Grand Jury in January, 1943; that said two last indictments are still pending and undisposed of but that the Department of Justice has stated and petitioner avers that said Department of Justice does not intend to nor will it proceed against any of said defendants in said indictments and that said two indictments are permitted to stand to embarrass and intimidate the defendants therein named; that I was not mentioned in said two former indictments.

(2) That this indictment, as well as said indictments numbered 70153 and 71203, was secured on the direct orders of Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States; that this is common knowledge to various newspaper reporters, columnists and radio commentators; that Walter Winchell at numerous times in his radio broadcasts adverted thereto; that more particularly, on March 26, 1942, the widely syndicated columnists, Pearson and Allen, reported:

"After three months of temporizing with native Fascist champions, Attorney General Francis Biddle is finally going to get tough on direct personal orders of the President  Finally White House Advisors alarmed over the situation took the matter direct to the President. They laid before him a mass of evidence dealing with Noble, Father Coughlin, Francis F. Moran of Boston, Gerald L. K. Smith of Michigan and Charles B. Hudson of Omaha. One document shown Roosevelt was the March 16th issue of Coughlin's weekly publication which declared that a 'world wide sacred war' was declared against Germany nine years ago.  After carefully examining the evidence the President summoned Biddle, ordered him to get tough, and do so immediately".

(3) That I have been and am being libeled by the communist and jewish press as one of America's top Fascists and anti-Semite No. 1.

(4) That said indictments, including this indictment, were also secured at the instance, request and demands of certain Communistic and Jewish newspapers, including the Daily Worker, the Jewish Examiner of Brooklyn, New York, the Jewish Sentinel and also B'nai B'rith, a Jewish fraternal international organization.

(5) That said The Jewish Examiner of February 25, 1944, stated that Samuel Untermyer's outfit that started that "world wide sacred war" against Germany ten years ago, has been building its files on "native Fascists" with "a great deal of the material used as evidence for the recent indictment of the thirty persons accused of sedition  drawn from its files **."

(6) That the Jewish Survey of New York and said Jewish Examiner have demanded and now demand a mass-trial of defendants and their "liquidation" as anti-Semites, as in Russia.

(7) That the principal reason that defendants in said indicment were indicted is that said defendants have reflected upon Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, and that they were and are anti-Communistic, anti-Jewish and pro-American; that in defendant's defense and that of some of the other defendants, it will be necessary to show the interest of said Franklin D. Roosevelt in the prosecution of this defendant and the other defendants in this indictment and for the reasons and causes, aims and purposes of this indictment.

(8) That said Edward C. Eicher is biased in behalf of plaintiff and of said Franklin D. Roosevelt; that he has not in the hearings on various matters before him on this indictment permitted any of the attorneys to use the name of Franklin D. Roosevelt in the various papers, pleas and motions offered by them but has stricken them bodily from the record.

(9) That said Edward C. Eicher has stated that the President is inspired, that his program for national recovery is inspired, that "under his vitalizing leadership forceful, aggressive and confidence restoring action has been substituted for the almost fatal policy of non-action and witless drifting which had brought us so close to the perilous vortex that would have engulfed our national order."

(10) That the background of said Edward C. Eicher has been and is socialistic, communistic and new-dealish; that while sitting in Congress as a representative from Iowa on the New Deal ticket 1933 to 1938, he was an ardent and blind follower of said New Deal and of the leader thereof; that on December 2, 1938, he resigned his office as representative and was sworn in as an appointee of the President to the Securities and Exchange Commission; that on April 9, 1941, he succeeded Jerome Frank as chairman of said Securities and Exchange Commission, said Jerome Frank having been elevated to the position of federal judge; that in January, 1942, said Judge Eicher was made Chief Justice of the District of Columbia court by said Franklin D. Roosevelt; that said Judge Eicher owes his political life and judicial appointment to said Franklin D. Roosevelt.

(11) That the prosecution is proceeding against said thirty defendants in a single trial in which a great diversity of charges will be pressed now against one group and now against another group with many overlappings, making the trial judge's task one of great difficulty and one which will strain the intellectual capacity of a most fair and trained jurist, wherefore said trial judge must be particularly fair, impartial, open-minded and judicious; that because of all of the foregoing, particularly because of the fact that this trial will reflect upon the ability, loyalty and motives of said Franklin D. Roosevelt and the conduct, maneuvers and machinations of Communists of this country and of certain Jews, I cannot secure a fair and impartial trial before said Edward C. Eicher.

(12) That in this proceedings the freedom of speech and the press is at stake; that the conduct of the prosecution and of the trial judge will be a test of one's belief in civil liberty precisely because some of the defendants indicted are charged with being cranks, crack-pots or zealots and because they are accused of preaching doctrines that are unpopular; and the test of any one's belief in liberty is his willingness to allow liberty of belief and expression to those he hates and to opinions he abhors; and that said Edward C. Eicher has denied the right of liberty of belief and expression and has shown his hatred of those who express opinions different from those he holds and believes in.

(13) That about the month of July, 1939, I organized a group called The Christian Mobilizers for the purpose of study and discussion of current social and political events. This organization, by public meetings, tried to awaken the people of New York, particularly of New York City, to the dangers of the growing power of the Liberal, Leftist, Socialist, Jewish, Communist, Internationalist coalition in control of the executive branch of our government. I believed that human freedom and human dignity, our civil liberties and national existence were threatened by these intellectual or revolutionary collectivists. By every legal means at my command I tried to acquaint my fellow citizens with these beliefs.

(14) That in the spring of 1940 I decided upon the organization of a political party to make possible the expression of our ideals at the polls. The American Destiny Party was formed and had myself as its first candidate for Congress in the 18th New York District. I severed all active connection with the American Destiny Party in October, 1941. It was disbanded shortly thereafter.

(15) That Judge Eicher is by his many public and private statements a liberal of the kind that we find in the Liberal, Leftist, Socialist, Jewish, Communist, Internationalist coalition sometimes known as the New Deal. One of my principal activities as candidate was to point out the essential il-liberality of these so-called present day liberals or New Dealers and contrast their totalitarian, collectivist philosophy with the true liberalism of such men as Thomas Jefferson, who maintained that a man had the right to be a believer or non-believer according to the dictates of his own conscience. It is implicit in Jefferson's teachings that he believed in the essential dignity and importance of the individual, which is contrary to the dominant ideas of the above mentioned collectivist coalition. (I am distinguished by my lack of belief in New Dealism and its alleged inspired leadership).

(16) I believe that the present New Deal liberals are in truth the spiritual heirs of the Salem witch burners instead of the heirs of the authors of the Bill of Rights. Judge Eicher has on several occasions affirmed his affinity with Rosenman liberalism and, on at least two occasions recently, made statements that has further convinced me that I and the other defendants could not secure a fair trial from such an avowed liberal New Dealer, to the effect, "I will not allow them to question the motives of the President." "I will not tolerate criticism of the administration". "I would not permit the defense of Semitism versus Christianity", yet anti-Semitism is one of the most effective anti-administration weapons.

(17) Throughout my political career I have struggled to make the American people conscious of the danger in contemporaneous so-called liberalism. I believe that present day liberalism bears much the same relationship to revolutionary communism that the influenza virus has pneumococcus. The influenza virus weakens the victim to the point where he succumbs easily to the pneumococcus.

(18) In the Congressional Record (Appendix) for April 21, 1937, under "Extension of Remarks", Judge Eicher inserted a copy of an address entitled "Independence of the Courts and the Wagner Act Decisions" made April 19th before a forum sponsored by Labors' Non-Partisan League, a Leftist Liberal organization, in Des Moines, Iowa. In these remarks he states: "I for one, ardently wish it were true that we could count on a consistently liberal majority on our Supreme Court as presently constituted, even though its margin of safety be narrow." Herein Judge Eicher reveals his wish for courts that express in their decision his political and economic predilections contrasted with courts that interpret the law impartially. Opposition to this kind of liberalism as contrasted with true liberalism has constituted a large part of my political activity. This and many other public avowals of his "liberalism" indicate his bias and makes certain that defendants could not get a fair and impartal trial before him.

(19) That neither I, nor any of the defendants, I feel certain, conspired as charged in this indictment; that defendants did not conspire in any way to accomplish anything, legal or illegal; that defendants, known to me, are individualists and patriotic Americans, who consider their country first; that it is not the defendants who conspired to overthrow the government but, as is known by many of our Congressmen and other worthy citizens of this Republic, this Communistic International group has obtained control of the government by smearing Congress and any one who dares expose them, and by placing its followers and stooges in key positions in the various governmental departments, bureaus and agencies and even in the White House and Department of State, and by using the Department of Justice in this cause to destroy freedom of speech and of the press, all to the end to overthrow this Republic and set up a totalitarian form of government.

(29) On the hearing before him on certain demurrers and bills of particulars on March 13, 1944, said Judge Eicher refused to permit my attorney to read a certain excerpt from a Chicago newspaper, which my attorney thought proper and pertinent and which Judge Eicher, without even being advised as to its contents, refused to hear read; that said Judge Eicher refused the attorney for another defendant the right to discuss certain parts of the indictment referring to President Roosevelt and certain political aspects thereof and caused his Bailiffs to remove forcibly said attorney from the courtroom; that then and there said Judge Eicher refused to consider a petition of a defendant for postponement of this case on the ground of local and national prejudice and called it scandalous and impertinent and although no motion to strike had been made by the prosecution, refused to have it filed and struck it from the record; that even before finally ruling on certain demurrers to the indictment and for proper bill of particulars and over the strenuous objections of my counsel, Judge Eichcer set this case for April 17, 1944, commenting that the government would take at least two months to put its case in and knowing full well that without a proper bill of particulars as requested by my counsel it would be physically impossible to be ready and prepared for trial, all of which further show the prejudice of said Judge.

(21) That on March 18, 1944, I finally became convinced that said Judge Eicher is biased and prejudiced and that I and the other defendants cannot secure a fair trial before him because of his personal bias and prejudice.

WHEREFORE, I pray that another Judge be designated in the manner prescribed by law to hear this cause.

JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS
Petitioner.

Jews Spread Anti-Semitism

Intolerance breeds intolerance; hate breeds hate. It seems to make no sense that those who suffer most from intolerance grow so fiercely intolerant themselves. Those who most vehemently protest the burning of books, for instance, favor the suppression and destruction of newspapers, magazines, books and speakers who differ with them.

I recently addressed a Jewish audience in Newark which caused me deep sadness and even chagrin. The discussion from the floor was to me as offensively un-American as anything I had ever listened to. The audience vehemently applauded demands for the suppression of certain newspapers in New York and other cities because "they tell lies". Vainly I tried to discover precisely what the lies were, but could get no specific reply. These newspapers were represented as anti-Semitic, although I who read them diligently find no evidence of any such thing. They may be anti-Roosevelt, anti-New Deal, anti-Communist, but not anti-Semitic. And the subjectcs are not in any way related, just as opposition to Franco is no sign of anti-Semitism. These matters are unassociated except in the agitations of American Communists. The attacks on these newspapers were based upon study of their relationship to American life; the attacks were due to stimulated intolerances, to the spread of unthinking hatred.

VOICE OF INTOLERANCE

I am sure the audience did not realize what they were doing. Every demand for specifications was laughed down as much as to say: "You know. Why do you ask?" It was intolerance speaking, the same kind of mass gangsterism that the Nazis produced in Germany. There was no difference in the spirit of this audience than there used to be in the stupidities of the Christian Front. It is an intolerance which breaches the First Amendment of the Constitution by the very people who most need the protection of that amendment.

"Today, me; tomorrow, you." That is a truism in intolerance which needs to be repeated over and over and over again.—George E. Sokolsky.

OUR GROUNDHOG WORLD

By GEORGE CARTWRIGHT

"Oiling Another War"

LaFollette's Progressive, 3-13-1944 editorial on proposed taxpayer constructed 1,250-mile Persian Gulf pipeline, states: "We have authority of no less a person than Harold Ickes, one of the central figures in the oil intrigue, to the effect that though there is adequate oil in the U. S. to fill civilian requirements for generations, 'the United States cannot oil another war'".

This is the second "oil deal" challenged by Congressman Jerry Voorhis, (D. Calif.) given "absent treatment" by the press.

It reminds one of Gen. Smedley Butler's remarks: "I've spent 27 years in 17 countries defending Standard Oil barrels", and "War is a racket".

Willkie's Wobbly Words

"Like many men who live with their words—and this may prove his Waterloo—Willkie has come to be manipulated to an end; neither they nor their connotations have any particular sanctity in themselves. That meticulous regard for words which men call 'intellectual honesty' has sometimes seemed to Willkie, bent on bigger things, an unnecessary indulgence. . . "

—Fred Rodell in Harper's.

Before a congressional committee, Mr. Willkie is quoted as stating, as to part of a speech previously made, which apparently he did not support under oath, "that was campaign oratory". Hereafter, to clip his wings it will only be neccessary for anybody in an audience to ask, Mr. Willkie, how much of that speech is 'campaign oratory'?
